This is a week 2

Countdown to Exams 2017!

12 school weeks until Summer Exams!

This week:

Mon: Tutorial

Tues: Yr 12 & 13 RAP

Weds: Assembly

Thurs: Tutor meeting

Fri: No students

Stress Tip

Up your water intake—aim for 3-5 litres of water a day. Stress makes you dehydrated.

Take a Risk Tuesday

This week do something different! Take a risk. Challenge yourself. Stretch your limits.

Why not try...

- A) Planting some seeds: it's the right time of year
- B) Finding out where Mr B goes on a Thurs lunch
- C) Finding out the science behind twins

Hot topics

Stop everything! Beyoncé is pregnant with twins!

She is a woman who knows how to keep a secret. Gossip about her private life is never confirmed or denied, only alluded to in enigmatic song lyrics. Since 2013, music fans have referred to the act of releasing a surprise album as 'doing a Beyoncé'. Beyoncé shocked people again by announcing that she is pregnant — with twins. Beyoncé is almost as much a visual artist as a musician, and her fans immediately began dissecting the photograph's true meaning. 'This pic is a powerful statement on bodies, maternity & the sacred. Beyoncé continues to push us to reimagine womanhood. A feminist icon,' said the writer Laura Rankin. You are reading too much into this, say the cynics. Surely this is all a rather vain, elaborate ploy to seize the spotlight and sell more albums? In such turbulent times, does an expecting celebrity really deserve to be the most-read news story the BBC and The New York Times for a full 24 hours?

What do you think? Work of art or shameless self promotion? Do you care?
